An incredibly great book with perfect and lucid answers. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you question me).

WHAT WE WANT AND WHERE WE ARE: FACTS NOT PHRASES

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .AN UNUSUAL man has given us an unusual book under the above title. For many years W. A. Appleton as secretary of the General Federation of Trade Unions of Great Britain has been an outstanding figure in the British trade union movement. He is far from popular among labor politicians and those who seek ephemeral advantage by methods not fundamentally sound. Among trade unionists, Appleton is estimated as one of the clearest thinking men in the movement-as one who applies his sound judgment to carrying through plans that make higher opportunities for life available to the common people. Appleton is a lace maker by trade who treasures an artistic home hidden behind a wall and masses of flowers. His idea of a pleasure outing is a trip to a high grade art gallery. His chosen calling finds him daily trying to bring opportunities for beauty, orderliness and spirituality into the lives of the makers and users of tools. His own thinking and living are ordered in accord with a fundamental philosophy upon which he squares all his problems. His book illustrates his habit of mind and work for it is the by-product of his careful consideration of problems-on paper. Failure to analyze desire, circumstances and possible Mr. Appleton says, facilitates the spread of dangerous propaganda and leads to wasted activity. Certainly, no one has been more impervious to sophistry than Appleton and it would be well if more of us schooled ourselves to the discipline of reducing our thoughts and arguments to writing and studied the result in cold black and white. Loose thinking and mental laziness are responsible for many human misfortunes. Each chapter of the book...
