If I have been liberal and unsparing in censures, I can appeal to an approving conscience for the rectitude of my intentions - for the evidence that in every sentence which has been uttered I have been guided by a scrupulous adherence to truth and justice. If any whose conduct has been called in question should have occasion to complain of neglect, they may be well assured that the true cause is, the want of information - that the bounds within which I was obliged to be confined would not permit, or that the place they occupy in the ranks of the Enemies of the Constitution does not render them sufficiently formidable to require that...
