Setting fire to the hootches and huts and waiting for people to come out and then shooting them. going into the hootches and shooting them up. gathering people in groups and shooting them. As I walked in you could see piles of people all through the village. all over. They were gathered up into large groups. I saw them shoot an M79 [grenade launcher] into a group of people who were still alive. But it was mostly done with a machine gun. They were shooting women and children just like anybody else. We met no resistance and I only saw three captured weapons. We had no casualties. It was just like any other Vietnamese village- old papa-sans, women and kids. As a matter of fact, I don't remember seeing one military-age male in the entire place, dead or alive. - PFC Michael Bernhardt The Vietnam War could...
